

What began 20 years ago as a retail front specializing in traditional and transitional styles with European influences, has grown to become the leading home interior and design destination in the Dallas Metroplex. Get to know The Interior.

Filled with fine home furnishings, accessories, art, decor, window coverings, fine rugs, lighting and a full floral design area, The Interior is led by president Mark Lafferty and his group of accredited designers who work clients' needs and wants to bring their vision to life. "Our goal is to create an inviting space that our clients can share with family and friends reflecting ease and comfort."

GET TO KNOW: THE INTERIOR

What defines good design.

Maximizing a space with colors, textiles, and a design that fully reflects the client's personality in their home or business.

What excites us. Meeting with our clients and having the opportunity to give them a change or direction they embrace and will love.

What keeps us going. Inspiring and uplifting our clients, surrounding ourselves with new and exciting products, and always working to serve and create.

Top Lighting by John-Richard Opposite Furniture by Hancock & Moore

"OUR CLIENTS INSPIRE US TO UNDERSTAND, SERVE, AND CREATE ...
AND TO GIVE THEM MORE THAN WHAT THEY ENVISIONED."

214.366.0606 | @theinteriordallas
theinteriordallas.com

What began 20 years ago as a retail front specializing in traditional and transitional styles with European influences, has grown to become the leading home interior and design destination in the Dallas Metroplex. Get to know The Interior.

Filled with fine home furnishings, accessories, art, decor, window coverings, fine rugs, lighting and a full floral design area, The Interior is led by president Mark Lafferty and his group of accredited designers who work clients' needs and wants to bring their vision to life. "Our goal is to create an inviting space that our clients can share with family and friends reflecting ease and comfort."

GET TO KNOW: THE INTERIOR

What defines good design.

Maximizing a space with colors, textiles, and a design that fully reflects the client's personality in their home or business.

What excites us. Meeting with our clients and having the opportunity to give them a change or direction they embrace and will love.

What keeps us going. Inspiring and uplifting our clients, surrounding ourselves with new and exciting products, and always working to serve and create.

Top Lighting by John-Richard Opposite Furniture by Hancock & Moore

"OUR CLIENTS INSPIRE US TO UNDERSTAND, SERVE, AND CREATE ...
AND TO GIVE THEM MORE THAN WHAT THEY ENVISIONED."

theInterior

214.366.0606 | @theinteriordallas
theinteriordallas.com