

ADVERTISEMENT

MARK LAFFERTY

PROPRIETOR, LEAD DESIGNER

As the proprietor and head of design of the Interior Dallas, Mark Lafferty has a refined eye for creating beautiful home environments, from his years of experience in the textile industry. The showroom at 7807 Inwood and Lovers reflects the latest in home design furnishings, along with everything from art, rugs, home accessories, lighting to window treatments. Mark strives to create a home that's unique to to each individual client.

Mark and his team also specialize in home renovations for those who really need to freshen up areas of the home, or work with them on the entire home remodel from paint to flooring. Which can also include everything from rugs, wallpaper to window treatments .

“From start to finish... you can consider it done.”

THE INTERIOR DALLAS SHOWROOM

A perfect way to define this must see showroom with their wide selection of furnishings and exceptional design service is...welcoming!

RUG GALLERY

The Interior Dallas offers one of the largest selections of take home samples of rugs in their extensive gallery. Along with some beautiful chandeliers. And if you don't see what you need, then just speak with one of the designers and they will help you locate that perfect one.

LIGHTING & LAMPS

FURNISHINGS

Sometimes locating that perfect statement piece for a main living area or a foyer presentation can be quite a challenge. But the Interior Dallas offers superior cabinetry with unique details for all areas of the home.

ART SELECTION

The art selection here is beyond! So many pieces to select from, that it rivals any gallery. Plus, if you're searching for a desk for the home or office, that too can be located at the Interior Dallas.

2020 brought us up-close and personal with what works, and what doesn't in our homes. Updating kitchens and bathrooms, and freshening up paint tones, has been the number one requested design need for 2021. Mark knows all to well that his client's look to him for insight and reassurance on the best choices to create that unique and timeless look.

Mark has seen now more than ever, how client's are requesting their homes reflect clean lines, and desiring simplicity, but also needing their space to reflect a nurturing and warm feel. Mark and his team create this look with color, texture, layering, lighting and concentrated details throughout.

7807 Inwood Road, Dallas
214.366.0606 | theinteriordallas.com

HOME & COMMERCIAL OFFICE

